Master’s Thesis* Digital Repository
Lehman College makes the content of its Master’s Theses available to the college community through the Master’s Thesis Digital Repository. The Repository supports the Lehman community in sharing its research and knowledge. Students are encouraged to submit their completed Theses to be added to this collection.

How to Submit Your Thesis to the Digital Repository
Submitting a Master's Thesis to the Digital Repository requires signed approval from your advisers, a licensing agreement signed by you, and a checklist for the Library's administrative office. Once you have completed the required paperwork, please send it along with a digital copy of your Thesis to the Library.

Your Thesis must be submitted to the Library in PDF format or in the format required by your Graduate Adviser. The Library accepts digital copies of your Thesis via e-mail, flash drive, CD, or DVD. Forms requiring signatures can be scanned and sent in PDF format. Students submitting content on flash drives or CD-DVD can submit the forms that require signatures on paper.

Please collect signatures from your Advisers on the Thesis Cover Page [example: page 2]. You will need to review and approve the Digital Repository Thesis License Agreement [page 3]. Finally, the Checklist [page 4] must be completed and signed by your Adviser. This confirms submission is complete and that you have satisfied Copyright and IRB compliance.

Submission Steps
Please submit ALL of the following:
1. A copy of your Thesis e-mailed or delivered on a flash drive. Large projects can be delivered on a CD or DVD labeled using permanent marker with Title, Student Name, Department, Course Code and Course Number, Year.
3. Signed Digital Repository License Agreement [page 3]

The Library will accept completed Theses in one of two ways:
1. E-mailed to Michelle.Ehrenpreis@lehman.cuny.edu
2. Flash drive or CD with paperwork in an interoffice envelope or a sealed envelope with Adviser’s signature over the seal - addressed to Michelle Ehrenpreis.

E-mail to: Michelle.Ehrenpreis@lehman.cuny.edu
